Jesus rode into Jerusalem not as a conquering king, but in humility, the Servant King, ready to complete the task for which he had walked this world.

Forgive us those times when we think too highly of ourselves, and remind us always that you ask from us lives dedicated to service, to you and to our neighbors, wherever and whoever they might be. Enable us to take off our cloaks of self-righteousness, and lay them down at your feet.

'Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity. I said "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord" – and you forgave the guilt of my sin.' Psalm 32:5

Liturgical Reflection ~ Palm Sunday

GOSPEL AT THE PROCESSION: Matthew 21:1-11

Jesus' entry into Jerusalem has all the markings of a royal procession. He takes charge of the arrangements; animals are requisitioned for him to ride on; his own disciples spread their cloaks along the way of the procession while others cut branches to mark the route. The frenzy of the crowd was indicative of the arrival of a person of some importance. Matthew states that the Scriptures were being fulfilled as the shouts of the crowd name Jesus as the Son of David, the one for whom they had been waiting.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 50:4-7

This reading offers us the third of the four oracles of Isaiah by the "Servant of the Lord," sometimes called the "Suffering Servant." This passage is deeply solemn. The entire passage is evocative of both the work and the spirit of the Messiah. God's servant will be cared for, with God's protection he can face the torment surrounding him, knowing he will ultimately enjoy divine vindication.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 22

The psalm is both a lament and an expression of praise. The psalmist, like the figure in Isaiah, is a suffering servant. His torments are described in excruciating detail, but no reason is given as to why he is attacked and ridiculed. But the commitment of the psalmist is unshaken; he professes his trust in the Lord and boldly states that he will continue "to proclaim your name to my brethren." The reference to his garments being divided and lots being cast for them is quoted by John in his account of Jesus' Passion.

SECOND READING: Philippians 2:6-11

Paul's poetic hymn to Christ captures both heart and imagination. Jesus, in human form, did not seize status; rather, he entirely emptied himself (kenosis) and in doing so his divinity is revealed. His death was not any death, but a heroic and transformative death that reveals his true nature. Now, he is exalted by God and all can see him for who he really is – and believe.

GOSPEL: Matthew 26:14-27:66

Matthew's Passion narrative is a series of events that unfold in several locations and takes us through the events of the final days of Jesus. Jesus is a righteous figure, ready to embrace his martyrdom. He is not a victim, but a servant choosing to do the will of the Father. This supreme expression of love, for the Father, for his followers, and for us is the heart of this narrative. The authorities secure the tomb and post a guard. The Gospel reader knows what the authorities did not know; even these measures would not contain the plan of God. Throughout, the message is that God's plan will be accomplished and the Messiah will be glorified.

Offertory Envelopes Update

St. Peter's is changing offertory envelope providers.

Parishioners may have received both temporary envelopes from the new company we have signed with as well as envelopes from the previous company. Envelopes from either packet may be used for collection. One set of permanent envelopes will be mailed to parishioners for May.

If you did not receive your envelopes or if you did not opt to receive them in the past but would like them now, please contact the rectory at 570/724-3371.

Thank you for your patience as we work through this transition.

Foot Washers Needed

In the Church, the foot washing ceremony is an important call for all people that they should be willing to serve others. Following the homily at the Holy Thursday Mass, parishioners will sit and have their foot washed by the priest. It is a reminder that we are of the Body of Christ and as such, and as his followers, we too are called to serve others in a spirit of humility.

Twelve volunteers are needed to have their foot washed at the Holy Thursday Mass. A sign-up sheet can be found on the table at the back of the church.

A new penance can be picked each week. Penances will be available for adults and children at the parish doors after Mass.

PASCHAL TRIDUUM

The Easter Triduum—which begins with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Maundy Thursday, reaching its high point in the Easter Vigil, and closes with Evening Prayer on Easter Sunday, is the summit of the Liturgical Year. It commemorates Christ's Paschal Mystery, i.e., the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

About This Sunday

Branches of palm olive, or sometimes even budding willow are ancient symbols of victory and hope, as well as of new life. The procession entry into Jerusalem overflowed with praise and excitement, as onlookers waved these triumphant branches and proclaimed their blessings. Yet, in a few days, they will cry "Crucify him!" The crowd change of heart illustrates the problem of holding God to our expectations. The crowd expected a liberating leader, the Messiah, to free them from Roman oppression. Jesus instead takes up his Cross and invites us to do the same. Through his Death and Resurrection he is indeed a liberator, but from death and sin, not from Rome. But unable to see past their need, the crowds disappointment turns into anger and a death order. As we enter Holy Week, Palm Sunday teaches us to let God be God, and to trust in God's wisdom not only to meet but shatter and exceed our expectations.

"WE NEED TO BE CLEANSED OF ALL THE DUST THAT HAS SULLIED OUR HEARTS. HOW? PRAYER, FASTING, WORKS OF MERCY: THIS IS THE JOURNEY OF LENT." - Pope Francis

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA BEGINS THIS WEEK - The Novena in preparation for Divine Mercy Sunday begins on Good Friday, April 7th. Copies of the Novena can be found on the handout table in the back of the church .

DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET - On Sunday, April 16th, we will celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday from 3:00pm – 4:00pm in the church with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet, confessions, and Benediction. All members of the parish are invited and encouraged to participate in this special devotion.

The Easter prayer Regina Coeli (“Queen of Heaven” in Latin) is a wonderful tribute to our Lord’s resurrection and to the Blessed Virgin Mary (pictured in her Coronation at left). Although its origins are unknown, it dates back to the 13th century. It is one of four antiphons (short liturgical texts sung or chanted, often as seen below, in a responsorial pattern) dedicated to Our Lady. It is often sung as a hymn and has had numerous musical settings in its original Latin text, including several by Mozart.

Traditionally, it is prayed standing, often at noon, in place of another well-known prayer, the Angelus, during the Easter Season from Holy Saturday until Pentecost.

Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia. / For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.

Has risen, as he said, alleluia. / Pray for us to God, alleluia.

Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia. / For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing of Easter Baskets

Baskets will be blessed on Holy Saturday, April 8, at 12:00pm in the church.

Items often found in the Blessed Easter Basket:

The Christian significance of Easter is symbolized in the foods used for the Holiday feast. Baskets are lined with a white cloth and decorated with ribbons and greenery to symbolize spring, renewal, and the Resurrection.

Traditionally, the baskets would include: decorated hardboiled eggs (representing Christ’s Resurrection), lamb shaped butter (representing Christ as the “Lamb of God), bread (symbolic of Jesus as the “Bread of Life”), ham (symbolic of great joy and abundance), sausage (symbolic of God’s favor and generosity), bacon (a symbol of the overabundance of God’s mercy on us), salt (symbolizes wisdom and preservation from corruption, it reminds us that Jesus did not undergo corruption in the grave and also reminds us that people are the flavor of the earth), cheese (symbolizes the moderation Christians should have at all times), horseradish (symbolic of the Passion of Christ and the bitter herbs of the Passover). A white candle is often inserted into the basket to represent Christ as the “Light of the World.” Lastly, the basket is covered with linen symbolizing the covering of Christ’s shroud.

Welcome Committee

St. Peter’s is looking for parishioners to form a committee focused on creating a welcome and inviting climate for new members, visitors, and all guests attending Mass. Volunteers are needed to acknowledge people arriving/leaving the church and to offer guidance to those visiting for the first time who may have questions. Committee members will be scheduled on a rotating basis during both weekend Masses starting next month. If you would like to be a part of this new ministry or for more information, please contact Melissa at stpreled@ptd.net.

Eternal Rest Grant Unto Them, O Lord and Let the Perpetual Light Shine Upon Them.

Lord, this we know, no matter how difficult life may be at this time, we know you will not stop loving us and will always hold us in the palm of your hand. We are reaching to you, Lord, to hold us, comfort us, and heal us. Lord, this we know, you are faithful in your love for us today and forever. You are with us, and we are with you. Amen.
