"The Easter joy is not to be kept to oneself. The joy of Christ is strengthened by giving it, it multiplies sharing it. If we open ourselves and carry the Gospel, our hearts will open and overcome fear." Pope Francis

Liturgical Reflection ~ 2nd Sunday of Easter

FIRST READING: Acts 5:12-16

The First Reading speaks of the success of the early mission of the apostles. Even though people were frightened by what the leaders of the Jews might do to those who listened to or joined the disciples, they nevertheless recognized that the Lord was working through them. God would not allow humans to obstruct the spread of the Good News.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 118

As we sing this song of thanksgiving today, may its words help us to give voice to our Easter joy for there is nothing, not even death, which will put an end to the Lord's mercy? We celebrate the fact that Jesus took our sins upon himself and suffered and died for us. We did not deserve this, but God acted on our behalf and died for us what we could not do for ourselves. He has conquered sin and even death and this fills us with an incredible sense of gratitude.

SECOND READING: Revelation 1:9-13, 17-19

The Second Reading presents images taken from the beginning of the Book of Revelation. John receives this vision on the Lord's Day, Sunday. John sees one who is like the Son of Man. He is wearing an ankle-length robe with a gold sash. These are clothes that one would find on the high priest, for Jesus is our high priest. John reacts with fear, for he recognizes that he is in the presence of something very holy; something beyond his understanding. Jesus calms him and speaks of how he once was dead and now he is alive forever. He conquered death forever and offers us the gift of eternal life.

GOSPEL: John 20:19-31

The risen Christ greets his fearful disciples with peace, commissions them to carry on his mission, and breathes his forgiving and reconciling Spirit upon them. They are overwhelmed with joy. Thomas who was not present, refused to believe until he is able to see and touch Jesus for himself. A week later, Jesus appears and invites Thomas to see and touch. Thomas, overwhelmed by the risen Christ, makes one of the most profound belief statements ever by addressing Jesus as "my Lord and my God." Jesus proceeds to praise all those like ourselves, who have not seen and yet have believed.

Just place donations in an envelope marked "Layette Project" and drop it in the collection basket. Please have all donations in the box or on the table by 3:00pm, May 11th. Questions? DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter. It is based on the private revelations of St. Faustina Kowalska, which recommended a particular devotion to the Divine Mercy.

In 2000, Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina and, during the ceremony, he declared: "It is important then that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church will be called Divine Mercy Sunday."

This is not a new solemnity of feast, nor does it celebrate a new or separate mystery of redemption, but rather, it leads into the continuing celebration of God's mercy during Eastertime and is not based solely on St. Faustina's revelations. Indeed, it is not primarily about St. Faustina — nor is it altogether a new feast. The Second Sunday of Easter was already a solemnity as the Octave Day of Easter. The title "Divine Mercy Sunday" does, however, highlight the meaning of the day.

The Divine Mercy image is a depiction of Jesus based on a vision that St. Faustina had in 1931. There have been a number of paintings made of this image. A basic explanation of the image is: Jesus is shown in most versions as raising his right hand in blessing and pointing with his left hand on his chest from which flow forth two rays: one red and one white. The depiction often contains the message "Jesus, I trust in You!" The rays streaming out have symbolic meaning: red for the blood of Jesus (which is the Life of Souls), and pale for the water (which justify souls). The whole image is symbolic of charity, forgiveness, and love of God, referred to as the "Fountain of Mercy."

How is the Divine Mercy devotion linked to the Scripture readings for the Second Sunday of Easter? The Divine Mercy image depicts Jesus at the moment he appears to the disciples in the Upper Room, after the Resurrection, when he empowers them to forgive or retain sins. This moment is recorded in John 20:19-31, which is the Gospel reading for this Sunday in all three yearly Sunday liturgical cycles. This reading is placed on this day because it includes the appearance of Jesus to the Apostle Thomas (in which Jesus invites him to touch his wounds). This event occurred on the eighth day after the Resurrection (John 20:26), and so it is used on the liturgy eight days after Easter.

PLENARY INDULGENCE

The Church offers a plenary indulgence for those who participate in Divine Mercy Sunday celebrations. Through a plenary indulgence, all temporal punishment due to sin is removed. In order to receive this indulgence, the following criteria must be met:

- The faithful must be in a state of grace at least at the time the indulgenced work is completed.
- The faithful must have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin.
- Make a sacramental Confession.
- Receive Holy Communion.
- Pray for the intentions of the Pope.

*It is sufficient that these sacred rites and prayers be carried out within several days (about 20) before or after the indulgenced act.

DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET

Immediately following the 8:30am Mass today, Sunday, April 24th, we will celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday with a blessing of the Divine Mercy Image, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet and Benediction. The chaplet is also prayed daily at 3:00pm on EWTN.

Samaritan House Needs You!

The Samaritan House of Wellsboro has served the local community for almost 25 years. Hundreds of volunteers have cared for the dying and their families in the comfort of our hospice home. Volunteers are the heartbeat of our ministry and we need your help to continue to offer this beautiful ministry to our brothers and sisters in Tioga County. A few hours of your time can make a big difference to a family in need. Shifts are two to four hours in length and training is provided. In the words of a family member and volunteer:

"I cannot express enough my gratitude for all they did for my dad, a stranger in need to them. My dad was treated with kindness and love from all the volunteers. My children were able to be with him and talk to him during his last week. My dad passed knowing how much he was loved by his family and total strangers. He died with dignity. He died knowing his life mattered. From the bottom of my heart, thank you Samaritan House, and to all the volunteers for caring so graciously for my dad. All of this has provided great comfort for me this past year!" ~ Daughter of a Guest

"As a retired RN, I have time, as well as a desire, to do something useful and worthwhile with that experience. I count it a privilege and a blessing to be able to make a difference to one who is passing, to help them be comfortable and pain-free as much as possible, and to support the person's family. I think of the saying, 'Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.' We all hope that when our own time comes there will be somebody there to care and make our passing peaceful."~ A Volunteer Testimony

Please prayerfully consider this invitation to join our family of volunteers.

MARY'S MANTLE CONSECRATION

"One of the great consolations of being Catholic is knowing that the Mother of our Lord is our Mother, too. Mary's Mantle Consecration deepens one's personal life of virtue, unites people in prayer, and sanctifies daily life, thus making us more like her son and so bringing joy to her motherly heart." (Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone)

All parishioners of St. Peter's and Holy Child churches are invited to participate in Mary's Mantle Consecration beginning on Friday, May 13th and ending on Monday, June 27th. This consecration is designed for busy people and can be done in a way that suits your needs and lifestyle. The heart of the program is the Rosary, along with a brief daily meditation and a weekly day of fasting. Participants will receive daily emails and are encouraged to share their thoughts and prayer requests with the group.

Mary's Mantle Consecration is a journey of 46 days, ending on the Feast of Our Lady of Perpetual Help (June 27th.) The number 46 refers to the stars on Mary's cloak, or mantle, in the image of our Lady of Guadalupe. Those who partake will have several opportunities to meet and pray in person throughout the retreat. A special ceremony in June will commemorate the consecration.

Each participant needs a copy of Mary's Mangle Consecration, by Christine Watkins, which can be ordered from Amazon or your favorite bookstore. For more information or to join the group, send an email to Linda Sampson at sampson4509@gmail.com, or use the sign-up sheet on the handout table in the church.

VISION 2030

Creating Parish Communities Rooted in the Life of Jesus Christ

By the essence of our Baptism, each person is called to take an active role in realizing the mission of the Vision 2030 Blueprint process. The laity, in an informed way based on data – and not simply emotion or sentimentality – must be directly involved in the process of creating vibrant parish communities rooted in the life of Jesus Christ. The participation of the faithful is not just to be invited and welcomed – but deemed critical. The laity and the clergy are co-responsible for the success of this mission. There must be equal participation and dialogue from all sides as this process moves forward.

The opportunities and challenges that the Diocese of Scranton faces are not unique to us alone. Many other dioceses are responding to similar circumstances. Locally, we must confront all situations that arise as a community of faithful disciples, relying on the Holy Spirit as our helper and guide.

The Vision 2030 Blueprint Process is not an outdated model of thinking of pastoral planning that should sit on a shelf, to be dusted off when situations arise. Instead, it should be a proactive initiative focused on being as responsive as possible to the mission of the Church.

While change to parish life and structure will be necessary during this process, this planning process allows for the unique needs of each deanery and even special circumstances within each deanery, to be brought forward. Consultation among the clergy and the laity - as well as the formulation of specific recommendations - will take time.

While any change prompted by this process may be difficult, this process aims to help all of the faithful grow more deeply in our faith. The Church of Scranton will continue to be vibrant and build on its past. The current reality of parish life will need to look different in some communities.

“The parish is not an outdated institution; precisely because it possesses great flexibility, it can assume different contours depending on the openness and missionary creativity of the pastor and the community”

(Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium 28)

A Gift in Your Will

We hope you'll consider including a gift to St. Peter's Church in your will or living trust. Called a charitable bequest, just a few sentences in your will or trust are all that is needed. Share this sample bequest language for St. Peter's Church with your estate planning attorney:

"I, [name], of [city, state, zip], give, devise, and bequeath to St. Peter's Church, Wellsboro [written amount or percentage of the estate or description of property] for its unrestricted use and purpose."

Eternal Rest Grant Unto Them, O Lord and Let the Perpetual Light Shine Upon Them.

Most Rev. John M. Dougherty
Henry Topf

Lord, this we know, no matter how difficult life may be at this time, we know you will not stop loving us and will always hold us in the palm of your hand. We are reaching to you, Lord, to hold us, comfort us, and heal us. Lord, this we know, you are faithful in your love for us today and forever. You are with us, and we are with you. Amen.
