Liturgical Reflection ~ 1st Sunday of Lent

FIRST READING: Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7

This passage from Genesis has three parts: the creation of man, the placing of the man and the woman in the garden, and the temptation and sin of the woman and the man. The focus of the account is on the last activity. Like all temptations, the one presented by the snake is subtle. The “reward” for disobedience is supposedly greater than the opposite, namely being obedient to God. And, like all temptations, when one gives in, not only is the consequence unexpected, but it brings about a realization that the wrong choice has been made

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 51

This psalm is one of the penitential psalms. Each verse has its own focus: the first is a plea for the mercy of the Lord; the second is a confession of sin; the third is a petition for transformation of the heart and spirit of the psalmist; and the fourth is a petition by the psalmist to the Lord to “open my lips” so that he can praise the Lord. The prayer of the psalmist becomes our Lenten prayer: what we need to fully enter the spirit of Lent is a “clean heart” and a “steadfast spirit”.

SECOND READING: Romans 5:12-19

In Paul’s letter to the Romans he draws a comparison between Adam and Christ. Adam is regarded as the one responsible for how sin entered the world; Christ is the one who has brought redemption from sin through the grace of God given to him. Although we are inheritors of the consequence of Adam’s disobedience, we are made righteous by the obedience of Christ to the will of the Father. Paul’s theology gives us the foundation for our Lenten reflection; it is the grace of God that saves us.

GOSPEL: Matthew 4:1-11

The Gospel text for the First Sunday of Lent is always the story of Jesus’ temptation in the desert. Matthew places his account right after Jesus’ baptism. The significance of this is that the tempter mocks Jesus’ identity with the words, “If you are the Son of God...” The voice from the clouds at his baptism had said, “This is my Son, the beloved.” All temptations attack our sense of who we are, or who we think we are. Jesus’ response to each of the temptations was an affirmation of who he was and a rejection of the identity the tempter offered. Jesus steadfastly recognizes that there is no other god, nothing and no one to equal the God of Israel, the One who sent him and the One he serves.

A Message from The Bishop's Office

A dispensation from the Friday Lenten observance of abstaining from meat has been granted for those celebrating the Feast of Saint Patrick on Friday, March 17, 2023

In keeping with the sacrificial nature of the Lenten season, the Bishop asks that all who receive this dispensation offer some act of charity for the well-being of God's holy people.

Important Notice Regarding Offertory Envelopes

Due to a paper shortage that our envelope provider is experiencing, there has been a delay in mailing February and March offertory envelopes to parishioners. We apologize for any inconvenience and are working to resolve the situation.

In the meantime, we ask that you please use an envelope for your offering and write your name and/or your envelope number on the outside. If you do not know your number you can contact the rectory at 570/724-3371 and we will provide this information to you.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowl is a Lenten program that raises funds for those who need support and services in communities throughout the U.S. and overseas. Seventy-five percent of CRS Rice Bowl donations supports their work around the world, and twenty-five percent of gifts stay in each diocese for hunger and poverty alleviation efforts.

Rice Bowls are located on the holy handout table at the back of the church, or visit crsricebowl.org for more information on the program and to donate.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and ends with the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday. You will notice a change in liturgy, decorations, and colors around the church. The priest will vest in violet, except on the 4th Sunday of Lent (Laetare Sunday) when he wears the rose vestments. The sanctuary is bereft of flowers or any other decorations. The Gloria will not be prayed/sung on Sundays. Also, Alleluia is not sung or said from the beginning of Lent until the Easter Vigil.

Lenten Reminders

Days of Fast and Abstinence – Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence (to abstain from eating meat). All Fridays during Lent are also days of abstinence. Catholics 14 years of age and older are required to abstain from eating meat.

All Catholics, 18-59 years of age, are bound by Church law to fast. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal. Two smaller meals may also be taken, but not to equal one full meal.

Easter Duty – All parishioners are reminded of their obligation to fulfill their Easter Duty. A person's Easter Duty consists of receiving the Holy Eucharist at least once between Ash Wednesday and Pentecost Sunday as well as going to the Sacrament of Reconciliation to confess any mortal sins.

As we begin this season of Lenten preparation, each of us is invited to reflect on those choices which will bring about the new life we celebrate at Easter. For this reason, the Church invites us to experience Lent as a time for deepened prayer, personal sacrifice, and self-giving – all so that we can be raised to new life in Christ! The Church encourages us to make confession a regular part of our spiritual life, especially during the holy season of Lent, as we reflect on our baptism and repentance.

On Mondays during Lent, there will be Mass at 5:30pm at St. Peter's followed by confessions.

"The Light is on For You!"

Ecumenical Event – Wednesday Lenten Services

The Wellsboro Ministerium will be offering Wednesday Lenten Services.

All services will be held at the First Presbyterian Church at 12:00pm with a light lunch to follow.

The schedule for the church who will host the luncheon and lead the prayer service is as follows:

February 22nd – First Presbyterian Church; March 1st – United Methodist Church; March 8th – Mt. Zion Church; March 15th – First Baptist Church; March 22nd – St. Peter's Church; March 29th – Vineyard Church.

All are welcome to attend!

Stations of the Cross

On Fridays of Lent there will be Mass at 6:00pm at St. Peter's followed by Stations of the Cross.

Children's Stations of the Cross will be held at 3:30pm on Fridays. Students are invited to the Parish Center after school for a light snack before Stations begin.

Pick Your Penance

After weekend Masses during Lent you will be able to "pick your penance" which is an extra act of kindness or a prayer that you can perform during Lent. A new "penance" can be picked each week. Penance will be available for adults and children at the parish doors after Mass.

Penance Services

 Sunday, March 26th – 3:00pm; Holy Child

Parish Directory Update

Thank you to everyone who participated in the directory photo taking effort. Work on the directory took a temporary pause due to the holidays, however we have been working to plan and produce a final draft. We are proposing to have a "Life at St. Peter's" section in which each committee head can submit photos of their ministry. The photo could be of the group itself or action photos of the ministry/group during an event or activity. Each committee can submit these photos to stpdirectory.2023@gmail.com. This section is intended to be a collage of photos without names.

Also, any parishioner or family who did not get a photo taken can submit personal photos if they choose. Please submit these photos to stpdirectory.2023@gmail.com. We expect the directory to take several more months to finalize before printing, so we appreciate your patience in this important effort.

Please submit all photos by March 26th.

Any questions can be directed to Steve Tokarz at 570/404-0693.

NATIONAL Eucharistic
Revival

"My flesh for the life of the world." (John 6:51)

All of the faithful in the Diocese of Scranton are invited to a Lenten Holy Hour with the Most Reverend Joseph C. Bambera, Bishop of Scranton, to commemorate the diocesan phase of the National Eucharistic Revival. These gatherings will take place in each of the twelve deaneries of the Diocese of Scranton.

At their November 2021 General Assembly, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops voted to move forward with plans for a National Eucharistic Revival to renew the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. The multi-year Eucharistic Revival began on Sunday, June 19, 2022, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, and culminates with the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, July 17-21, 2024.

Mark your calendars and plan on joining Bishop Bambera as we pray for renewal in our devotion to Jesus Christ present to us in the Eucharist.
