Can You Spend One Hour?

We, as Catholics, are truly blessed. We have with us, the Real Presence of Jesus Christ. He is with us in His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. What makes us even more blessed is we have the opportunity to visit Jesus during Eucharistic Adorations. In Eucharistic Adoration, we are not just thinking about God, we are with God! Can you spend one hour? We are in need of Adorers, if we want to continue adoration every Tuesday as it is now. Please consider committing to spending one hour with God and sign up on the adoration schedule found on the bulletin board in the church.

“The time you spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the best time you will spend on earth. Each moment that you spend with Jesus will deepen your union with Him and make your soul everlastingly more glorious and beautiful in Heaven, and will help bring about everlasting peace on earth.” Mother Teresa

Liturgical Reflection ~ 7th Sunday of Easter

FIRST READING: Acts 7:55-60

The faithful Stephen, who rightfully claims the honor of being the Church's martyr, finds himself surrounded by the angry mob and is stoned. Even in this torture, he continues to look to God, and echoes the words of Jesus as he asks the Lord to receive his Spirit. Like Jesus, Stephen is falsely accused, and like him, Stephen asks for forgiveness for his executioners. The as yet unconverted Saul, whose name will soon change to Paul, is an onlooker to the horror. The death of the Church's first martyr could have brought the Church to a swift end. Instead, Stephen's death is intimately connected to the raising up of a sinner who will assume the role of an apostle.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 97

The Responsorial Psalm is a hymn of praise to God, the king. God is not like the kings of the earth. He is truly a God of justice. He is filled with joy. God is exalted far above all.

THE LORD IS KING
MOST HIGH ABOVE ALL THE EARTH

SECOND READING: Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20

This reading from the Book of Revelation features a variety of verses from the Epilogue. The first part of this passage speaks of Jesus' return in glory. God, who is alpha and omega, beginning and end, speaks as does Jesus, who affirms that the angel who has accompanied John in his visions is in fact his. The words of summon at the end of the passage reflect the early liturgical life of the Church and echo the summons to the Eucharist at that time. "Yes, I am coming soon." These final words of the New Testament echo down the ages as a promise of light and hope, not of doom.

GOSPEL: John 17:20-26

Today's reading from the Gospel of John is a small part of what is called the priestly prayer of Jesus. Addressed entirely to God and in the presence of the disciples, Jesus prays fervently that they maintain their unity. He is one with the Father, and they must be one also. The prayer also reiterates the theme that commences the Gospel, which is that Jesus has existed before the foundation of the world – what the Church will eventually term begotten not made, one in being with the Father. This intercession is not only for the benefit of the disciples, but also for the sake of the whole world, "that the world may know that you sent me." Jesus has made the unseen and unknown God visible. We also share that task, making God visible in the love we manifest for one another. Those who follow Jesus should be one, one with him and the Father, and one with each other.

CATHOLIC MEN'S CONFERENCE SAVE THE DATE

The 7th Annual Catholic Men's Conference will be held on Saturday, October 8th at Holy Redeemer High School in Wilkes-Barre from 8:00am to 3:00pm. More information will be published as the date gets closer.

Through the intercession of Our Lady of Sorrows, may God's infinite love and mercy grant strength to those who mourn, healing and consolation to the wounded, and peace to all who grieve. Amen

My heart aches for all of those impacted by today's senseless school shooting in Uvalde, Texas, especially the young, innocent victims, as well as their parents, families, and the entire community. The only way to describe what manifested itself today at Robb Elementary School is unspeakable evil. There are far too many families in our nation who have sent their children off to school in the morning yet they never return home in the afternoon. I ask all people in the Diocese of Scranton to join me in prayer as we mourn the victims of this terrible tragedy. I ask that we pray also for the wisdom and courage to discover ways to end such senseless violence that has enveloped our land. May the love of Jesus comfort all those who are suffering and in pain. Most Reverend Joseph C. Bambera, Bishop of Scranton

There are no words to adequately convey the deep sadness and sorrow and overwhelming shock at the incomprehensible loss of life of 19 children and two adults at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde this afternoon at the hands of a young gunman. When will these insane acts of violence end; it is too great a burden to bear. The word tragedy doesn't begin to describe what occurred. These massacres cannot be considered "the new normal." The Catholic Church consistently calls for the protection of all life; and these mass shootings are a most pressing life issue on which all in society must act — elected leaders and citizens alike. We pray that God comfort and offer compassion to the families of these little ones whose pain is unbearable. They must know that we are with them and for them. May the Lord have mercy on us all. From the Book of Wisdom, "The souls of the just are in the hands of God. ... They are in peace." Archbishop Gustavo Garcia-Siller of San Antonio

My heart is broken for the massacre at the elementary school in Texas. I am praying for the children and the adults killed and their families. It is time to say enough to the indiscriminate trafficking of weapons. Let us all work hard so that such tragedies can never happen again. Pope Francis

Prayers for Ukraine

As you came into church this weekend, you may have noticed the addition of a table with a cross and candle on it that is located in the sanctuary near the papal flag. The purpose is to remind us that the people of Ukraine are still in need of our prayers as they are experiencing the cruelty of war. The table is draped in blue and yellow, the colors of the Ukrainian flag. The three-bared cross was used because it is the predominant cross of many eastern Catholic and eastern Orthodox churches, including the Ukrainian Catholic Church. The candle represents our prayers.

We will conduct another Holy Hour for peace in Ukraine on Tuesday, June 14th at 5:00pm The holy hour will conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 6:00pm.

Loving God, we pray for the people of Ukraine, for all those suffering or afraid, that you will be close to them and protect them. We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength, and wisdom to guide their choices. We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need. May we walk in your ways so that peace and justice become a reality for the people of Ukraine and for all the world. Amen.

Women's Brunch

Last Saturday, over 50 women gathered in the Parish Center to share delicious food, friendships, and the bonds of faith. Several women spoke about important ministries within the church, including ChristLife, Samaritan House, and the Diocesan Lay Ministry program. Fresh lilacs, white linens, lovely decorations, and beautiful music made the day memorable and offered a welcome respite for many women.

Special thanks to Alanna Huck and her family for the fabulous food; Sarah and Kaylen Graber for homemade muffins; Besty Gordon and Carissa Adams for the decorations; Laurie Coffee, Danette Kerestes, BJ Butler, for their planning and hard work; Christina Simonis, Flori Prough and Teresa Delmotte for the music; and to Sarah Hazelton for sharing her journey in the Lay Ministry Program. BJ Butler gathered prayer intentions to take to the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem this week. Also, thanks to Sue Singer for her Prison Ministry display and handout tables, Nona Josten for representing ChristLife, and Fr. Joe for his help and support of the event.

A big shout out to Linda Sampson for spearheading this event for our faith community. Linda is currently in the Diocesan Lay Ministry Project with a focus on the Blessed Mother. Although this brunch was started as a culminating project for her work in the lay ministry program, it became much more than just an assignment. The event was a huge success and a wonderful testimony to our faith community.

Holy Hour for Peace and Healing

Tuesday, May 31st

5 pm to 6 pm

“Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.”

(Matthew 5:4)

In response to the recent tragedies in Buffalo and Uvalde, we will pray a special holy hour in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament for peace and healing for all those affected by these senseless events.

Please join us as we turn to Jesus for comfort and strength.

May 28, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

As I announced at Masses last weekend, since about October, I have been struggling with significant stress and anxiety especially in regards to the administrative responsibilities of serving as a pastor. Because I have been having a very difficult time juggling those administrative and pastoral responsibilities of serving two parish communities with a considerable geographical distance between them, I have asked the bishop for a transfer of assignments. I am hoping to move someplace closer to home and closer to my support system of family members and friends. I will be continuing as your pastor until the end of July, but the diocese will now begin the process of finding a replacement. Please note, this has nothing to do with the people of either St. Peters or St. Thomas parishes. You have been very helpful, supportive, and welcoming, but I simply need to focus on my own self care at this time. I ask for your prayers and for your understanding.

I am convinced that with God nothing is wasted, and there are no coincidences. I was brought to this assignment for a reason, and I just hope that you were able to experience Christ through my ministry at the altar. If you were able to do that in even the smallest way, then that was reason enough for me coming to Tioga county. I know I will take with me many blessings from this experience and opportunities for growth in the future.

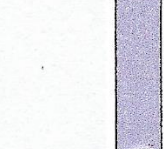

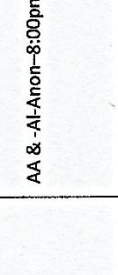

I know this news may come as a shock, but please remember the words from last Sunday's gospel: "Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (John 14:28). Priests come and go, but Jesus always remains. He is here to fill you with His life, to guide you and to strengthen you. That is something we must all never forget. May God bless you and your families today and always.

Peace,

Rev. Joseph Mosley
Pastor

A Gift in Your Will

We hope you'll consider including a gift to St. Peter's Church in your will or living trust. Called a charitable bequest, just a few sentences in your will or trust are all that is needed. Share this sample bequest language for St. Peter's Church with your estate planning attorney:

"I, [name], of [city, state, zip], give, devise, and bequeath to St. Peter's Church, Wellsboro [written amount or percentage of the estate or description of property] for its unrestricted use and purpose."

Lord, this we know, no matter how difficult life may be at this time, we know you will not stop loving us and will always hold us in the palm of your hand. We are reaching to you, Lord, to hold us, comfort us, and heal us. Lord, this we know, you are faithful in your love for us today and forever. You are with us, and we are with you. Amen.
