Liturgical Reflection ~ 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

FIRST READING: Jeremiah 20:7-9

Jeremiah's words outwardly express his internal, personal, frustration with the Lord. Others have scorned and reproached Jeremiah for his prophecies such that he no longer wants to speak the Lord's name. Yet the power of the Lord's name becomes too much for him to keep inside. Later in Jeremiah's words, which we do not hear today, he affirms the Lord's presence with him. This will allow those who persecute him not to win out. Today's reading is only a brief portion of one of the six laments among Jeremiah's prophecies. Vehement and accusing as he is, it is significant that he continues to address all his pain to God. God alone is the one who can understand the depths of Jeremiah's grief, and the only one who can rebuild prophet and people.

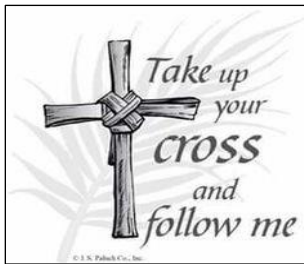

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 63

The Responsorial Psalm assigned for today is also one of the common psalms for Ordinary Time. In the psalm the author longs deeply for God to point that his soul thirsts for him. The psalmist's confidence in the Lord's kindness and care is evident. Like us, the author has gazed upon the Lord in the sanctuary and knows the riches of the banquet. The Lord who provides is also the Lord to whom we cling when others scorn us as they did Jeremiah.

SECOND READING: Romans 12:1-2

For three more Sundays our Second Reading comes from Paul's letter to the Romans. Today's brief passage addressed to both Jewish and Gentile Christians, comes from the beginning of Romans 12, a chapter in which Paul instructs on how they responsibly live in the light of the free gift of justification in Christ and provides the foundation for the pattern of life to be embraced by all believers. They cannot live with disregard for their actions. God holds them accountable. Conformity to Christ, not the world, is the Christian charge. Living in Christ will lead us to discern God's will for us.

GOSPEL: Matthew 16:21-27

Today's Gospel reading follows immediately upon last Sunday's, in which Simon Peter professed Jesus as the Christ and in turn, Jesus blessed Peter with the keys to the kingdom and acknowledged that the Church would be built upon him. In today's Gospel, Jesus is realistic with his disciples informing them that he must suffer, die, and rise. Peter rebukes the Lord, disagreeing with him, perhaps neither hearing nor understanding what it meant that Jesus would be raised. Jesus, in turn, rebukes Peter and teaches the disciples that if they wish to follow the Cross it is also theirs. This cross is ours, too. What Jesus says about his own dying and rising, his own loss and finding of life, teaches his disciples of every age about their own death and resurrection, about losing their lives to find them again eternally.

EMERGENCY SPECIAL COLLECTION

As the Hawaiian Island of Maui begins to recover from the devastation caused by the deadliest wildfire in the United States in more than a century, parishes in the Diocese of Scranton will take up an emergency special collection to address the immediate needs of the affected communities while also planning long-term recovery efforts. Funds from the emergency collection will go directly to help the people of Maui rebuild.

There will be a special collection next weekend, September 9th & 10th for those impacted by the wildfires in Maui. Please be as generous as you are able.

SCHEDULING 2024 MASS INTENTIONS

Scheduling Mass intentions for 2024 will be available beginning September 5th through the parish office, during regular business hours. The following are the established guidelines for scheduling intentions:

One weekend Mass on each weekend must be celebrated for the intentions of the parish. This is required by Canon Law (c. 534). Because of this, we only have one weekend Mass for which we can accept an intention. Due to this limited availability of weekend Masses, no family may schedule more than ONE WEEKEND MASS PER QUARTER, or four weekend Masses per year. There is no limit to the number of daily Mass intentions which may be scheduled by each family.

Canon 948 states, "Separate Masses are to be applied for the intentions of those for whom a single offering, although small, has been given and accepted." Therefore, only one intention may be scheduled for any given Mass. However, for pastoral concerns to better accommodate the needs of the parishioners, we will adhere to the following: Up to three first names with the same last name (i.e., John, Paul, and Mary Smith) or two last names only (i.e., Scott and Smith Families) will be allowed per intention.

The stipend given for a Mass intention is $10. While we are willing to take requests over the phone, your Mass intention will not be scheduled until we are in receipt of your donation.

Christmas, Easter, Mother's Day, Father's Day, and All Souls Day Masses are always for the individual intentions listed by parishioners on their envelope.

The Sanctuary Candle, burning in memory or in honor of someone, is available on a weekly basis with no limit to the number each family may reserve. The stipend given for the Sanctuary Candle is $10.

Dominican Rosary Pilgrimage

September 30, 2023

Catholics from around the country will unite on Saturday, September 30, 2023, to seek the intercession of our Lady. The Dominican Rosary Pilgrimage is hosted by the Dominican Friars of the Province of St. Joseph at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, DC. The event will take place on Saturday, September 30th. Most of us will not be able to attend in person, but we can pray the Rosary with the community on that day. For more information about this powerful event, visit Rosarypilgrimage.org This may be a future pilgrimage destination!

Living Rosary

October 2023

The Living Rosary will be updated and prayed from October 1st-31st. Those who have been praying throughout the past year may continue with their decade of choice but are asked to contact Laurie Coffee to sign up for October 2023. Many of you may be attached to the decades you've been praying, so please continue with them. However, others felt that the ongoing, annual commitment was a challenge. Therefore, Marian Ministries will sponsor the Living Rosary in the months of May and October only.

We need 40 people to pray one decade each day (the same decade for 31 days) so that all four sets of the mysteries are covered. Participants will gather for a social at St. Mary's Church following First Saturday services on November 4th. For more information or to sign up, call Laurie Coffee (703) 470-2975 or email laurie.coffee@gmail.com.
